God	See Creation	Pupils will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Christians believe in God, and that they find out about God in the Bible.</li> <li>• Christians believe God is loving, kind, fair and also Lord and King; and there are some stories that show this.</li> <li>• Christians worship God and try to live in ways that please him.</li> </ul>	Pupils will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Christians believe God is Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit (see Incarnation).</li> <li>• Jesus the Son is seen by Christians as revealing what God the Father is like. They believe he promises to stay with them and Bible stories show how God keeps his promises.</li> <li>• Christians find that understanding God is challenging; people spend their whole lives learning more and more about God.</li> <li>• Christians really want to try to understand God better and so try to describe God using symbols, similes and metaphors, in song, story, poems and art.</li> </ul>	Pupils will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Christians believe God is omnipotent, omniscient and eternal, and that this means God is worth worshipping.</li> <li>• Christians believe God is both holy and loving, and Christians have to balance ideas of God being angered by sin and injustice (see Fall) but also being loving, forgiving, and full of grace.</li> <li>• Christians believe God loves people so much that Jesus was born, lived, was crucified and rose again to show God's love</li> <li>• Christians do not all agree about what God is like, but try to follow his path, as they see it in the Bible or through Church teaching.</li> </ul>	Students will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Christians believe in God as Trinity, and that the different roles of the three persons in one God can be seen as exemplifying the relational nature of God and the importance of self-giving love in Christian practice</li> <li>• Ideas of God have varied (and still do) within the Christian Church, and that different emphases lead to different ways of living (for example, some Christians explain how and why God allows suffering; others cannot, but still trust God).</li> <li>• Christians can use the Bible to describe God in different ways.</li> </ul>

				<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Christians believe getting to know God is like getting to know a person rather than learning information.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• It is not simple to talk about God, and language about God might use analogy, symbol, or metaphor and still not get close to what God is 'really' like. Christians believe that trying to express the inexpressible mystery of God is still worthwhile. Not all Christians agonise over such theological problems — some might say it is more important to get on with loving God and their neighbour.</li> </ul>
Creation and Fall	Pupils will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The word God is a name.</li> <li>• Christians believe God is Creator of the universe.</li> <li>• Christians believe God made our wonderful world and so we should look after it.</li> </ul>	Pupils will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• God created the universe.</li> <li>• The Earth and everything in it are important to God.</li> <li>• God has a unique relationship with human beings as their Creator and Sustainer.</li> </ul>	Pupils will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• God the Creator cares for the creation, including human beings.</li> <li>• As human beings are part of God's good creation, they do best when they listen to God.</li> <li>• The Bible tells a story (in Genesis 3) about how humans spoiled their friendship with God (sometimes called 'the Fall').</li> <li>• This means that humans cannot get close to God without God's help.</li> </ul>	Pupils will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• There is much debate and some controversy around the relationship between the accounts of creation in Genesis and contemporary scientific accounts.</li> <li>• These debates and controversies relate to the purpose and interpretation of the texts. For example, does reading Genesis as a poetic account conflict with scientific accounts?</li> </ul>	Students will know that Christians believe: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Creation reveals something about the nature of God (for example, powerful, involved in human life, source of all life on earth), and reminds humans of their place as dependent upon the Creator.</li> <li>• Humans have a responsibility to Creation, as stewards.</li> <li>• Genesis 1 and Genesis 2 present different pictures of God.</li> </ul>

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Humans should care for the world because it belongs to God.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Bible shows that God wants to help people to be close to him — he keeps his relationship with them, gives them guidelines on good ways to live (such as the Ten Commandments), and offers forgiveness even when they keep on falling short.</li> <li>• Christians show that they want to be close to God too, through obedience and worship, which includes saying sorry for falling short.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• There are many scientists throughout history and now who are Christians.</li> <li>• The discoveries of science make Christians wonder even more about the power and majesty of the Creator.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• There are various ways of resolving the perceived conflict between science and religion, such as by interpreting Genesis in different ways.</li> <li>• Being made ‘in the image of God’ can be interpreted widely, but implies a significance for human beings, and an intimate connection between them and the Creator.</li> <li>• The story of ‘the Fall’ (Genesis 3) is interpreted differently by Christians (for example, Augustine and Irenaeus).</li> <li>• The idea that sin spoils creation is fundamental to Christian belief, but it is tied with the idea that God brings salvation through Jesus — sin does not have the last word. Evil and suffering need not destroy faith in God.</li> <li>• The idea that human beings are flawed and in need of God’s salvation has influenced Christian thought over centuries. Reactions</li> </ul>

People of God			Pupils will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Old Testament tells the story of a particular group of people, the children of Israel — known as the People of God — and their relationship with God.</li> <li>• The People of God try to live in the way God wants, following his commands and worshipping him.</li> <li>• They believe he promises to stay with them and Bible stories show how God keeps his promises.</li> <li>• The Old Testament narrative explains that the People of God are meant to show the benefits of having a relationship with God and to</li> </ul>	Pupils will know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Old Testament pieces together the story of the people of God. As their circumstances change (for example, from being nomads (Abraham, Jacob) to being city dwellers (David)), they have to learn new ways of following God.</li> <li>• The story of Moses and the Exodus shows how God rescued his people from slavery in Egypt; Christians see this story as looking forward to how Jesus' death and resurrection also rescue people from slavery to sin.</li> <li>• Christians apply this idea to living today by trying to serve God and to bring freedom to others: for example, loving</li> </ul>	Students will know that Christians believe: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The People of God did not always live according to the Law. Prophets spoke out through words and symbolic actions, declaring the word of the Lord'.</li> <li>• Prophets called people back to God's Law — they reminded the People of God that their relationship with God was a covenant, or agreement; if they keep breaking the terms of the agreement, there would be difficulties.</li> <li>• The People of God often ignored the voice of the prophet, but sometimes would repent and come back</li> </ul>
